

CODE OF CONDUCT – TUFC COACHES and MANAGERS

Tuggeranong United Football Club expect all Coaches and Manager to comply with this Code of Conduct. Any breach of the Code of Conduct may result in sanctions being imposed.

Whilst performing duties as a coach or manager, as well as adhering to the rules and regulations of the Club and of Capital Football we expect coaches and managers to:

1. Attend training sessions and matches at times advised by the Club. If unable for a valid reason it is expected coaches and managers will inform the relevant people as soon as is practical.
2. Respect the rights, dignity and worth of all players and ensure that everyone is treated equally.
3. Ensure any physical contact with players is appropriate to the situation and necessary for the player's skill development.
4. Encourage players to respect one another and to expect respect for their worth as individuals regardless of their level of play.
5. Operate within the rules and spirit of the game and encourage players to do the same.
6. Respect the facilities and equipment of my own and opposing Clubs.
7. The ability of all players will be respected and the players will receive equal game time across the course of the season where appropriate.
8. Ensure that the tasks and/or training set are suitable for age, experience, ability, and physical and psychological conditions of each of the players.

9. Abide by the Constitution and Rules & Regulations of the Club and the rules of Capital Football.
10. Ensure that all players are made aware of their responsibilities under the Club's Code of Conduct and take all reasonable steps to ensure that players adhere to it.
11. Not abuse the position as coach or manager to seek financial gain or pursue other business interests.
12. Act respectfully toward the players, referees, officials and spectators of any team.
13. Understand that verbal abuse, violent behaviour towards any player, referee, Club official or spectator is at all times unacceptable and would make me liable to serious consequences (as is any sexual, racial or other form of harassment)

CODE OF CONDUCT – TUFUC PLAYERS

As a player with Tuggeranong United Football Club it is expected that:

Players will play by the rules of the game as set down by Football Federation Australia (FFA), Capital Football and Tuggeranong United Football Club.

1. Players will cooperate with and respect coaches, parents and team mates at all times.
2. Players will arrive ready to start training and will arrive at matches at the time instructed by the coach and/or manager.
3. Players will never argue with an official. If they disagree with a decision they will inform the coach or manager during a break or after the match.
4. Players will not abuse officials, players or spectators – either verbally or physically.
5. Players will work equally hard for themselves and their team -- at training and on match day.
6. Players will show sportsmanship and acknowledge good plays whether they are made by their team or the opposition.
7. Players will respect the rights, dignity and worth of all participants regardless of their gender, skill level, physical appearance, cultural background or religion.
8. Players will display modesty in victory and graciousness in defeat.
9. Players will thank the opposition and officials at the end of the match.

10. Players understand that any penalties imposed upon them as a result of a breach of this code, including any loss of match time, does not entitle them to any refund or partial refund of fees paid or owing.

11. If a coach decides that a player has broken this Code of Conduct at training, or on match day, players understand that one or both of the following consequences could be applied:
  - Exclusion from the match or training session in which the code break has taken place for a period of time determined by the coach
  - Attendance at the next training session and/or match may require the player to be accompanied by a parent/guardian.
  - For extreme cases or continued breaches, dismissal from the club is at the discretion of the executive committee
